

Who's this?

Who's this?

I've got two blue ears
and a blue nose.

Who's this?

I've got red spots, too.

A colorful illustration of a forest path. A boy in a striped shirt and blue pants stands on the right, looking thoughtful. A yellow bird is perched on a branch in the lower right. A green frog is in the lower left. The path is lined with green bushes and trees, including a palm tree on the right. Several pink speech bubbles with white text are scattered across the scene.

Who's this?

I stand up ...

sit down ...

stop ...

look ...

and listen.

Hi! It's me!
