

Moving Pictures

Complete the sentences.
Use your CD-Rom
and Student's Book.

On _____ 28th, _____,
two brothers,
Louis and Auguste
Lumier,
_____ 100
chairs from
the Grand Café
in Paris. They took them downstairs to a room under the café.

But they didn't need 100 chairs. Only _____ people came to see the world's first 'film show'. They _____ ten films that night.
It _____ twenty minutes!

The first films had no sound. Then in _____, Al Jolson – an actor and singer – was the first person to speak and sing in a film.
The film _____ The Jazz Singer.

Between 1930 and 1950,
millions of people _____ _____ every week. Not many people had televisions.

People _____
the news in the cinema.

One famous cinema was
The Roxy in New York.
It opened in _____ 1927.
It cost $12 _____
to build. It had _____ seats and one screen.

Today, there are often
five or six screens in one big _____.

the news
downstairs
seats
opened
sound

People still love _____ the cinema.